DICK WELLES ACHIEVES A TRI-UMPH AT HARLEM RACE TRACK.

Negotiates Distance in 1:37 2-5, the Mark for a Circular Course-Ocean Dream Beaten in Match Event.

CHICAGO, Aug. 14.-Dick Welles won the special match race with E. E. Smathers's Grand Opera to-day at Harlem, and in do ing so set a new world's record for one mile on a circular track. The winner's time was 1:37 2-5, which is one-fifth of a second off the record made by Alan-a-Dale at Washington Park this spring.

The race did not amount to much as a contest, as Grand Opera was at no time near Dick Welles, the latter winning in a common canter. It was the universal opinion of horsemen who saw the race that Dick Welles could have run the mile in 1:37 flat had he been extended. Grand Opera had about half a length the better of the start, but in three jumps at the first turn. He opened up a gap of two lengths at the far turn and maintained this advantage all the way to the stretch, where he increased the lead to five lengths. From there home he was under a stout pull and ning ball and was well supported for seven passed under the wire two and one-half jogging. The betting on the race was very heavy. Dick Welles opened at even money, but was backed to 9 to 10, while Grand Opera was as good as 6 to 5 and backed to 19 to 20 at post time. Weather clear and warm

Racing Spirit Has Flown.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. RICHMOND, Ind., Aug. 14.-The effort in ugurated several days ago to bring about a race meeting here, with an exhibition mile by Cresceus as a feature, has not resulted in anything. It has been a very difficult matter to arouse interest in race meetings in Richmond, notwithstanding that one of the fastest tracks in the State is here. Richmond was once a member of the Grand Circuit and got the best the country afforded, but no Grand Circuit meeting has been held here since about 1892.

The main event was to have been a ten-round contest between Hugo Kelly, of Chicago, and Charles Miller, of Milwaukee. There was also a semi-wind-up of six rounds between Kid Carsey, of Chicago, and Kid Henderson, of this city.

The theater was packed to its capacity when the opening preliminary was put on. The management kept the contests moving, Fourth—One mile: Talpa, 98 (Adkins), 7 to and no long waits between the events were 2, won; Sidney C. Love, 96 (W. Robbins), 9 allowed to tire the big crowd. At 11 o'clock and it appeared that he had not trained for the fight. Kelly weighed 154 pounds, and looked as though he had been carefuly handled. From the moment when the gong tapped it was evident to all that Miller was no match for Kelly. The latter had Miller at his mercy from the beginning. The men parried and Kelly dropped Miller to his knees by a light jab on the jaw. Both men were careful in the opening round, and it was not pleasing to the spectators. In the second round both men mixed matters, but Miller was clearly outclassed. The third round found Miller looking weary. Near the close of the round he was wabbling, and it appeared that he could not last the round. In the fourth round Miller had shown no recuperative powers. Kelly ran toward him and planted a stiff right on his head, which sent Miller reeling to the ropes. Miller tried to get toward Kelly, but the latter outstepped him. When they came together Kelly put a stiff left to Miller's stomach, knocking him to the floor. Miller arose, but was too weak to continue the match. The contest was given to Kelly. LITTLE FELLOWS DREW. The semi-wind-up afforded much interest to the big crowd and it was justly called a draw by Referee Ryan. Kid Carsey started the pace and broke ground often. He found Henderson waiting with a good right and this put the little Italian on his guard. In the third, fourth and fifth rounds the boys mixed matters to such a degree that it was an even shot which would last to the end of SARATOGA, N. Y., Aug. 14.-At the aucthe contest. In the sixth round each came up strong and took matters well in hand until the close of the round. Another bout that was greatly applauded was the first preliminary, which was between Fred Cole, of Alexandria, and Lawrence Clark, of this city. Cole, like Kelly in the big event, had his opponent going from the time they toed the scratch in the opening round. Both boys displayed much science and gave a good exhibition. The next preliminary, which was between Tommy Carroll, of this city, and Willie Griffiths, of Chicago, afforded much fun to the crowd. Carroll displayed skill, but Griffiths was so clumsy on his feet that he immediately caused an uproar of laughter. Carroli was awarded the decision. Owing to the shortness of the main bout the management procured the Canadian Kid, of this city, to meet Kid Stadfelt, of Cleveland, for four rounds. Neither man had trained for the contest, yet each gave a clever exhibition of sparring and both were greatly applauded for their efforts. The bout was declared a draw. While the men were waiting for the returns from San Francisco a battle royal between five white boys was arranged. This lasted for about five minutes, as the young boys were not accustomed to the exertion they were put to.

GRAND CIRCUIT MEET DAY.

Budd Doble Gets The Roman in First -Tom Keene Goes the Fastest Heat in a Race This Year.

NEW YORK, Aug. 14.-Excellent sport marked the closing day of the Empire City Grand Circuit meeting. The track was dry and fast. The 2:18 trot brought a field of eleven to the wire, with Caspran the choice. In a most exciting finish he won from Hie Boy by a neck with Dillon Boy a good third. The favorite had an easy time in the second heat, winning by a length. Strathlane was a hot choice for the 2:13 pace, selling at $100 to $45 for the field. He won the first heat in good style but was defeated by Olive Wood easily in slower time in the next heat. The judges decided Ella Red, b. m. (Wolverton)....... 1 1 1 to change drivers and put John Curry behind Strathlane. The result was a superb finish as the two heat winners fought the battle all down the stretch. As they shot under the wire it looked like a dead heat. The judges caught Olive Wood's nose in The 2:10 trot had a strong field of nine,

but The Roman, driven by Budd Doble, sold at even money and in two splendid drives he won with just a little to spare. The Yonkers stake of $3,000 attracted only a small field and Tom Keene sold at $100 to $25 for the field. He won the first heat in 2:04%, the fastest heat in a race this year. ODDS DAMPENED BETTING

MAJORITY OF LOCAL SPORTSMEN PICKED JEFFRIES TO WIN.

Crowds Gathered in Hotels and Saloons to Hear Returns from the Big Mill-Few Big Bets.

The Jeffries-Corbett fight was a big event to Indianapolis sportsmen. Down-town Indianapolis had the appearance of a night after an important election. From early in the evening Washington and Illinois streets, near the betting places and other centers of information, were crowded with people who waited anxiously until midnight to hear the news. The fight did not begin until 10 o'clock, and as San Francisco time is two hours slower than Indianapolis time the first news of the fight did not reach broom, 103 (Gannon), 4 to 1, second; Satire, los (Hicks), 2 to 1, third. Time, 1:49 4-5. over the wires that Jeffries said he would whip Corbett. This news was soon circulating through the crowds, and it added interest to the situation. Other bits of news were received from San Francisco from time to time until the fight began. These only made the thousands of people who stood in the streets more anxious to hear that the fight had really begun and that in a few minutes they would know what happened in the first round.

But with all their interest the majority of the Indianapolis people seemed to think that the fight was going to be won by Jeffries. It wasn't a question here whether "Jeff" would be able to whip Corbett. The question was: How soon will "Jeff" be Jeffries had everything his way in Indianapolis. He was the favorite with the Inplace at Harry Walker's and the Kingston. At pretty large odds several thousand dollars was wagered on "Jeff," as he was known on the boards. But the Indianapolis people had so little use for Corbett that a With the exception of a few bets at $200 to $100-in Jeffries's favor, of course-and a few others of $100 to $50 and $60, the same way, $25 variety, also on Jeffries, most of the betting was of amounts ranging from $1 to $10.

LOOKED LIKE A CINCH. The fact that almost everybody seemed to think there was almost no chance for the fight to end but one way-that it was practically certain that Jeffries would win-detracted a good deal from the usual interest of Indianapolis prize-fight enthusiasts over national event.

But even with this condition discouraging betting, several thousand dollars were wagered before the fight began. Most of the betting interest was exhausted before the first news came in from 'Frisco. Mike Toomey's version of it was, "Not much doin' in a bettin' way to-night. There's plenty of Jeff money, but the trouble is you can't get much of it up. Nobody seems to want to buy any Corbett tickets. They're not coming this way, anyway."
"Two to one on Jeff? Is that the best you can do?" said a man with a roll of bills in nis hand.

"Yep, two to one," said Mike. "Take the commission out of that and it isn't worth the trouble of betting," said the man with the money. "Well, I'll tell what I'll do," said Mike, "I'll, not charge any commission. The man with the money took $10 worth of two to one on "Jeff." A big man, who said he wanted to be $300 to $50 on Jeffries loafed around Harry Walker's all evening, but didn't find anybody who thought well enough of Corbett to take the bet. "I'll bet $300 to $50 that Jim Jeffries knocks Corbett out." the big man called out several times. But no one showed him $50 and he was still trying to place a bet at midnight.

bets were posted. Bets were also made in most of the hotel barrooms. Jeffries was held at 1 to 2 and 1 to 3 in some cases, and there was little Corbett money in evidence at these odds. Lots of people "piked" with $1 and $2 bets on Corbett, merely as a gambling proposition, but there were few big wagers made.

KENTUCKY PRISONER PUTS HIM-SELF IN BAD LIGHT.

Tells How He Imposed on Judge and Jury in His Own Trial-Progress of Powers Case.

GEORGETOWN, Ky., Aug. 14.-For five hours to-day Henry Youtsey, who is a life able to win? How long will it take him to prisoner, underwent very trying and vigorous cross-examination in the Caleb Powers trial as to his participation in the condianapolis betters. Most of the betting took spiracy which, he says, resulted in the assassination of William Goebel. He maintained a calm demeanor that the people cannot understand in him after the sensations he furnished two years ago, when good deal of "Jeff" money went a-begging. he was himself on trial here and "threw a fit" in the courtroom to keep from going on the witness stand and to excite symand a dozen or so of the $50 to $25 and $40 to pathy with the jurors. When he testified to-day how he had "faked" them, he did so with a smile, causing general laughter. Judge Robbins held the defense to systematic cross-examination and fined one attorney interrogating for violation of his rule. The defense scored several points as to conflicting stories told by the witness before his trial and afterwards. He admitted that he had testified frequently to confuse detectives and lawyers employed by the Goebel brothers. His most important evidence, that as to the written agreement with Caleb Powers regarding the affidavit of Powers's innocence, the truth or falsity was waived, was ignored by Powers's attorney in their cross-examination. Ex-Congressman Ollie James, of the First district, followed Youtsey and told of incidents at Frankfort following the shooting of Goebel, and acts of the militia. T. C. Campbell, of New York, counsel for the prosecution, is sick abed. Cincinnati specialists were with him to-day.
